

ONE HUNDRED MEN ARE SHUT IN BURNING MINE

It is Feared That All Are Lost. Six
Have Already Been Taken Out Dead.

Special to News.

KOENIGSBURG Prussia, Oct. 14.—Another coal mine horror has overtaken this region. Early this morning fire broke out in the Koenigsburg coal mine imprisoning more than 100 men. It is feared now that all are lost. Scenes around the mine are heartrending. The cries and lamentations of scores of women and children are heard on every hand. At this writing six bodies of men suffocated near the surface, have been recovered.

Fiscal Court

May Build Bridge Over Stoner Creek
At Stoner Dirt Road.

The meeting of the Fiscal Court was called to order at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. All members were present. A motion was made by Squire Renick and seconded by Squire Wills that D. S. Haggard, Road Supervisor investigate the advisability of building a bridge over Stoner Creek on Stoner Dirt road and report to the court. It was passed unanimously.

On motion of Renick seconded by Wills it was unanimously voted that the poll tax that is collected this year be applied to the Road and Bridge fund.

On motion of Renick and seconded by Wills the court was directed to draw an order on the Treasurer to pay all election officers in the county. The meeting then adjourned to meet again at 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

TAFT THURSDAY

Presidential Candidate Will speak
From Stand at Union Depot.

If the train schedule is carried out, the special bearing Judge Taft and party will arrive here shortly after one, p. m. Thursday.

All arrangements have been completed for his reception. A stand will be erected in the portico on the south side of the Union Depot. By this arrangement several thousand people can see and hear. Hon. Jno. W. Langley Congressman for this District will introduce Judge Taft.

FIRE AT LONDON.

Special to News.

LONDON, Ky., Oct. 14.—Fire started about five o'clock this morning in the Livery Stable belonging to consumed with one horse, seventeen buggies and harness and five hundred dollars worth of feed.

The fire extended to a brick building occupied by a drug store and The building was burned to the ground. A new brick store and office building adjoining was also burned. This was occupied by a grocery and a restaurant, the offices by lawyers and doctors. Loss about $40,000 with partial insurance. The Court House and other buildings narrowly escaped.

POTTED PALMS.

The management of the Brown-Proctoria has added greatly to the beauty of their office by placing in different places in the lobby large palms. These palms are not the property of the hotel, but are placed there by citizens who have no place to keep them during the winter and who also take a pride in helping to keep the hotel up to the reputation it has gained not only in Kentucky, but all over the country, as one of the prettiest and best in the State.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

A marriage license was issued Wednesday morning by the County Clerk, J. A. Boone, to A. R. Denison and Tina Emma Collins. Both are residents of Clark county.

AUTOMOBILE
HITS SURREY

Mr. W. R. Thomas' Car Hits Carriage
—No One Seriously Hurt.

A horse attached to a surrey containing Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Haggard and daughter and Mrs. Wheeler Haggard was frightened by an automobile driven by W. R. Thomas, Wednesday morning, and a serious accident was narrowly averted. The carriage party was standing in front of the office of The News on Main street and the horse took fright at the approach of the automobile, reared and attempted to turn. In the narrow space between the sidewalk and the street car standing on the track, Mr. Thomas found it impossible to avoid running into the surrey. No one was seriously hurt, although the party were pretty thoroughly frightened.

Several spokes of the surrey were broken and the harness. Mr. Thomas was driving at a moderate speed when the accident occurred.

THE NEWS CO.
IS ORGANIZED

First Meeting of Stockholders Held
Wednesday—Officers
Are Elected.

The first meeting of the stockholders of The Winchester News Company was held Wednesday morning at the office of the Company. Among the stockholders present were: J. W. Chambers, W. S. Duty, B. R. Jonett, F. H. Jackson, R. O. Fitch, W. H. Hodgkin, J. R. Martin R. R. Perry and W. A. Beatty.

The following directors were elected to serve for one year: J. W. Chambers, W. A. Beatty and R. R. Perry.

The following officers of the Company were then chosen:
W. A. Beatty, President.
J. W. Chambers, Vice President.
R. R. Perry, Secretary and Treasurer.

After some little detail business and a general discussion of the policy of the paper, the meeting adjourned.

GREAT PREACHER
HAS PASSED AWAY

Elder John S. Sweeney of Christian Church is Dead.

PARIS Ky., Oct. 14.—At his residence on Higgins avenue at 1:10 o'clock this morning, Elder John S. Sweeney, one of the greatest preachers of the Christian church, passed peacefully to rest in the 77th year of his age.

Elder Sweeney followed in the footsteps of the famous Alexander Campbell. He came of a family of preachers, his father and grandfather being preachers of the Baptist persuasion, the former joining the reformation. He had two brothers, who like himself were known as pulpit orators, Elder Geo. W. Sweeney, of California, and Elder Zack Sweeney, of Columbus, Indiana.

TO MOVE TO CITY.

The handsome new residence building of Mr. V. Bloomfield on Lexington avenue, has just been completed. It has been leased by Mr. Thomas Brock who will move in from the country the first of the month.

Danger Ever Present.

Without danger, danger cannot be surmounted.—Publius Syrus.

AN AMERICAN GIRL AND AN IRISH EARL.

When the Ogden Millers returned from abroad and went to their Newport summer residence they had as their guest a young Irish earl who is reputed to be the fiancé of Miss Beatrice Mills. This titled gentleman responds to the name of Bernard Arthur William Patrick Hastings Forbes and is the eighth Earl of Granard and owns an estate of 21,300 acres, named Castle Forbes, in Longford, Ireland.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD IS NOW IN SESSION

Delegates Have All Arrived. Routine Business
Occupies Most Of Time Wednesday.

The 119th annual meeting of the State Synod of the Presbyterian Church that embraces all the Presbyterian Churches in the State is in session here Wednesday. The first session was held at the Presbyterian Church Tuesday night. The roll call and the election of a Moderator and clerk was all the business that was transacted at the first session.

Dr. Edwin Muller of the First Presbyterian Church of Lexington, was elected Moderator to succeed Rev. T. M. Hawes, of Louisville, and Rev. D. M. Sweet of Shelbyville was elected clerk.

Called to Order.

The meeting was called to order by Rev. William Cummings, of this city. The Synodical address was delivered by Rev. T. M. Hawes, of Louisville. His subject was, "Hearth Stone Religion." His address was not a lengthy one but was very interesting. It was devoted entirely to the way that religion should be taught at home to the children and the training that they should be given during their tender years.

Rev. J. T. Leonard of Florida, who has been a minister of the Presbyterian faith since 1852 and Rev. J. M. Sieg, a noted missionary worker of Africa, were made honorary members of the Synod. After this the meeting adjourned until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

State is Divided.

The State is divided into what is called Presbyteries. There are six of them namely, West Lexington, Louisville, Paducah, Muhlenburg, Transylvania and Abenzer. The Synod is an organization composed of representatives from each of the Presbyteries whose duty is an executive supervision of the affairs of the church.

Wednesday's Session.

Wednesday morning's session began at 8 o'clock. The first hour was devoted entirely to devotional exercises. After the reading of the minutes of Tuesday night's meeting and the enrollment of some delegates who did arrive in time to attend the opening session. The Synod took up the regular routine of business, such as hearing reports from the various standing committee, etc. This occupied nearly all the morning session.

Extends Invitation.

President Taylor of the Kentucky Wesleyan college extended a cordial invitation to the Synod to have them hold there devotional exercises at the college chapel Thursday morning with the students. The invitation was accepted and the hour of holding the exercises was set at 8:45 o'clock.

The devotional exercises will last thirty minutes after which the Synod will return to the church and begin work on the day's program.

A communication from the General assembly and higher court of the church regarding the control of Central University at Danville was read under the regular order of communications.

Ever since Central University at Danville was organized it has been under the control of the Synod but at the last meeting the control of it was turned over to the Board of Trustees. The General Assembly, the higher court of the church, sent the matter back for consideration at this meeting. There was no action taken on the matter at the time the communication was read but on motion of Dr. John Hemphill of Louisville it was ordered that the matter be referred to a committee for consideration. The committee is to be composed of one representative from each of the six Presbyteries represented.

The attendance at the meeting here is said by all to be the largest yet on record in the history of the Synod. The attendance at the meeting Monday night was about one hundred, and delegates have been arriving on all in coming trains all day.

BRILLIANT EDITOR
VISITING CITY.

Mr. Harry Somers, editor of the Elizabethtown News, is one of the delegates to the Synod in session here. Probably no editor in the State has done more to shape public opinion along right lines than Mr. Somers. He is an independent thinker and is not tied by party or creed in expressing what he thinks. Kentucky needs more men of his type.

Bank's Vast Business.

Each day the Bank of England fills 60 ledgers in keeping the accounts.

CHICAGO NEEDS
ONE MORE GAME

Detroit is Easy Mark to the National League Champions.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 14.—By winning from Detroit, 3 to 0, Chicago has now won three of the four games of the championship series. Should victory again come to Captain Chance today the world's championship for 1903 will come with it. The game was an errorless one, and the Detroit enthusiasts ascribed their defeat very largely to the luck of the game. Two of Chicago's runs, which would have been enough to win, came in the third inning on two bases on balls, a steal of second and two hits. Chicago added another one for good measure in the ninth, when Evers singled to right, stole second and came home on Chicago's hit. In only one inning, the fourth, did Detroit threaten. With men on first and second, Cobb forced O'Leary at third, and Crawford was caught napping off second. In the last four innings Brown was invincible, and the Detroit side was retired each in one-two-three order.

The pitching of Brown was clearly up to his usual standard. His only wildness was in hitting Coughlin. He allowed only four hits, two of which went to O'Leary and two to Crawford, one of the latter's being a double. He struck out four men, besides accepting four fielding chances in perfect style. Score:

Detroit ... 000000000-0 4 0
Chicago ... 002000001-3 11 0
Batteries—Summers, Winter and Schmidt; Brown and Kling.

While the crowd was larger than that which turned out to view the opening struggle of the series here, it was not as large as had been expected in view of Detroit's victory. The turnstiles registered 12,907 paid admissions, from which the gross receipts were $19,231. The ground immediately in front of the grandstand was still muddy from Saturday's rain, but the diamond was in good condition and the weather almost ideal.

Holland Issues Ultimatum.

Caracas, Oct. 14.—"The revocation of the decree of May 14 is demanded in the most energetic manner—the government of Venezuela must from this moment, and without delay, fulfill the protocol of 1894 and not prolong the intolerable state of affairs which it has created by the decree of May 14." These are the words of the minister of foreign affairs of the Netherlands in his note of Aug. 20, which he answers Venezuela's communication telling of the summary dismissal of Minister De Reus from Caracas.

Only Three-Foot Rise.

Gallipolis, O., Oct. 14.—Hopes of coal men were blasted when the sudden rise in the Great Kanawha river did not increase the stage in the Ohio over three feet. No coal will be shipped, but the stranded ferryboats at Straight Ripple, Proctorville, Ashland and Ironton will resume their runs, as will all light draught packets between Gallipolis and Louisville. Nine feet of water must develop before coal can be shipped from Pittsburgh and the Great Kanawha river.

Servians Regain Composure.

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 14.—Milovanovic, the foreign minister, in an interview denied that there was any mobilization or concentration of the Serbian army. In his opinion there was no longer any danger of hostilities, for a time at least, the people being calmer and the government willing to take Great Britain's advice and await the outcome of the proposed conference of the powers, relying upon Europe's recognition of Serbia's just cause.

Charged With Murder of Girl.

Milton, Fla., Oct. 14.—Andrew Copeland was brought here from Berrydale, Fla., and placed in jail charged with the murder of Lula Dixon, a young girl of that place. According to statements said to have been made by her parents, the girl before her death said she drank a glass of water into which Copeland placed what he told her was quinine. She died shortly afterward.

Postoffice Is Robbed.

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 14.—The post-office vault was blown open here and a large number of registered packages, the contents of which is not known, and about $150 in money was stolen. There is no clue as to the identity of the burglar or burglars.

Army Officer Arrested.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Lieutenant Colonel W. F. Tucker, paymaster of the department of the lakes, was served with warrants charging him with wife abandonment. Mrs. Tucker is the daughter of former Senator John A. Logan.

LAWYERS HAVE A WARM DEBATE

Witness Testifies That Certain Roads
Entered Into Peace Pact.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Questions in cross-examination of Henry B. Felton, general traffic manager of the Standard Oil company, by Frank B. Kellogg, government attorney, in the hearing of the railroad phase of the government suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company, brought on a colloquy between counsel for the oil company and the government on the subject of immunity to railroads.

The primary question propounded to Mr. Felton concerned a 12-cent rate between Whiting, Ind., where Standard Oil company refineries are located, and Toledo, and an 11-cent rate from Whiting to Cincinnati. In this connection Mr. Felton declared that the roads out of Chicago, under pressure from the bureau of corporations, put in an illegal rate to Toledo. Attorney Kellogg asked: "Did all the railroads put out these rates to East St. Louis, to Evansville, to Grand Junction, the rates from Chicago to Toledo, because they were afraid of the bureau of corporations?"

Mr. Rosenthal, counsel for Standard Oil company, interposed. "I think all of the railroads that were granted immunity against criminal prosecution by private arrangement with the government, which was undisclosed, probably did so."

"Will you answer the question?" continued Mr. Kellogg, addressing Mr. Felton.

"I don't know of a railroad that was indicted," commented Mr. Rosenthal, while Mr. Felton replied that he could not answer the question, and Mr. Rosenthal continued, "and the records in the various cases show that they were granted immunity. What they did under the pressure of that grant of immunity we do not altogether know."

Mr. Kellogg then interposed with the words: "The more of that sort of talk you put in the record, Mr. Rosenthal, the worse it will be for you."

Instant rejoinder was made by Mr. Rosenthal, who declared: "When the time comes that you can not only control your own case but undertake to control what I put in the record, then it is time for me to withdraw from the case, and I will do it whenever we reach that stage. I do not hear any denial from the government's side of the table that these railway companies were granted immunity from criminal prosecution." Mr. Kellogg disclaimed any knowledge of any immunity or promise of immunity, and after a few more words the cross-examination was resumed.

Says Castro Is Not Sick.

New York, Oct. 14.—Major Carmelo Castro, brother of President Castro of Venezuela, arrived from that country on the steamer Zulia. He said he is here on a pleasure trip only. Major Castro denied the report that his distinguished brother is a sick man, as recent reports of Dutch origin made him out to be. At no time was there any cause, Major Castro declared, for contemplating turning over the reins of government to the vice president. "President Castro," his brother averred, "is not an enemy of this country. He merely has been defending the interests of his own country as he sees them, and as it has been his duty to do."

Policeman Prevents Suicide.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—A handsomely dressed woman, who gave her name as Mrs. Julia Curtis and who said she formerly lived in Chicago and Hagerstown, Md., was detected by a policeman on one of the Delaware river piers preparing to jump overboard, and was taken into custody. The policeman was then told by the woman that she had intended committing suicide. She was sent to the Philadelphia hospital. A note was found pinned to her clothing bearing the words, "Goodbye, John. From Julia Curtis."

Stockman Arrested.

Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—William H. Stockman of Crooksville, formerly of New Lexington, who came here with the avowed purpose of being sworn in as governor in place of Andrew L. Harris, whom he claimed to be holding office illegally, was arrested when he mounted the stage in a Columbus theater and attempted to make a political speech. It developed that a warrant was already in the hands of the police for the arrest of Stockman on a charge of lunacy filed by Probate Judge Haynes at New Lexington.

Putnam County Votes Wet.

Ottawa, O., Oct. 14.—Putnam county voted to retain saloons by a majority of 145. The vote was the largest ever cast in the county.

YOU have your own ideas about the style of suit you want to wear this fall; you may prefer the double-breasted coat; a good many men like the athletic shape it gives the figure.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

make so many good styles that about all you need to do to get just what you want is to come to us and say what it is. We've got it.

Fine suits in many new, smart, snappy styles; a great variety in the shape of the pockets, the way they're put on; the shape and hang of the coat; a lot of catchy details you'll be interested in. Many good colors to choose from.

Overcoats, too, when you're ready; raincoats, topcoats; all styles. All-wool, right tailoring and correct fit.

This Store is the Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes.

Agent for Crossett Shoes, Young Brothers and John B. Stetson Hats.

VIC BLOOMFIELD,
LEADING CLOTHIER.

Copyright 1908 by
Hart Schaffner & Marx

BRYAN COMES TO KENTUCKY

Democratic Presidential Candidate to Speak in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 14.—Louisville and Kentucky Democrats are arranging for a rally on next Tuesday night, October 20, that is expected to eclipse any political demonstration ever witnessed here. W. J. Bryan will cross the river from Indiana and will speak in Louisville. This announcement was made Monday night in a telegram from the Democratic National Committee to the State headquarters and the news was quickly communicated to Representative Sherley and other local Democrats. When Mr. Sherley made the announcement at a big meeting in the West End last night, the big crowd cheered for Bryan and said, "The Twelfth ward will be there."

GRAND JURY OF MERCER AT WORK.

HARRISBURG, Ky., Oct. 14.—Since last Friday the Mercer county grand jury has been probing into the conduct of city affairs. The big row precipitated among the Councilmen by the large charges made for work on the waterworks dam, and the pretty free talk of crookedness, occasioned the investigation. Twelve or fifteen hundred dollars has been spent on the dam—half of it through Councilman Edger and half through Councilman Daviess—and yet it is very freely charged that no good has been done.

Other jobs done for the city are talked of as worthless or overpaid.

OUR CONTEMPORARIES.

The spirit of a political house-clean seems to be spreading from national to more local circles. The atmosphere is becoming very heated about the corruptionists, and explosions may occur in almost any quarter at almost any minute. It is well. The day will be a happy one for the people when the grafter will be exposed and driven out of office and into prison without regard to his political complexion. Clean up, gentlemen; the people are with and behind you!—Harrisburg Democrat.

Grafter is another word for thief. The grafter is the meanest kind of a thief—the fellow who betrays the trust confided to him by the people and uses it to rob those who honored and trusted him. The highwayman is a respectable gentleman in comparison with the cowardly grafter.—Harrisburg Democrat.

Italian Proverb.

Oil and truth will get the uppermost at last.

CATTLE QUIET AND GOOD ONES STEADY.

Calves Slow and Weak; Hogs Dull and 15 to 25 Cents Lower in Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 14.—Receipts and shipments of livestock at the Cincinnati Union Stock Yards today were:

Receipts 332 6059 871
Shipments 579 1902 ...

CATTLE—Quiet; good steady; other grades weak at yesterday's dealers' steers, extra, $4.50@4.65; good to choice $3.75@4.35; common to fair $3.40@3.50; heifers, extra, 4.00@4.10; good to choice $3.10@3.90; common to fair $2@3; cows, extra $3.50@3.65; good to choice $2.85@3.40; common to fair $1@2.75; canners $1@2; bulls, easy and slow; bolognas $2.65@3.15; extra $3.25 fat bulls $3.15@3.50; milch cows steady.

CALVES—Slow and weak; extra $7.25 fair to good $5.50@7; common and large $3@6.75.

HOGS—Dull, 15@25c lower; good to choice packers and butchers $5.85@6; few extra loads heavy $6.05@6.10; mixed packers $5.35@5.90; stags $2.75@4.50; common to choice heavy fat sows $3.75@5.35; light shippers $4.60@5.25; pigs (110 lbs. and less) 3.25@4.50.

Sheep—Quiet and weak to a shade lower; extra $3.65@3.75; good to choice $3@3.60; common to fair $1@2.90.

LAMBS—Slow and weak to 10c lower; extra $5.65@5.75; common to fair $4@5.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Cattle—Receipts, about 8,000; market steady. Beeves $3.40@7.40; Texans $3.25@4.70 westerners $3.10@5.70; stockers and feeders $2.60@4.50; cows and heifers $1.60@5.30; calves $6@8.50; Hogs—Receipts about 2,000; market 5c to 10c lower. Light $4@6.05; mixed $5.50@6.25; heavy $5.55@5.75; good to choice heavy $5.75@6.25; pigs $3@5.15; bulk of sales $5.75@6.05. Sheep—Receipts about 18,000; market steady. Native $2.50@4.40; western $4.40; yearlings $4.25@4.85; lambs $4@6; western $3.75@6.

PRAYER MEETING.

There will be no prayer meeting services held at the Methodist Church Wednesday evening in order to allow the members who desire to attend the meeting of the Presbyterian Synod.

Putting Away Trousers.

In folding trousers for traveling or packing purposes, put the waist buttons together and pull the trousers down quite flat, with the outer seams about an inch in front of the inner; fold them over into half their length, and then put them into whatever receptacle awaits them.

League To Be Formed

Winchester Will Probably be Represented in Roller Polo.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 14.—It is announced that Central Kentucky is to have a Roller Polo League this winter and this exciting game, which arouses enthusiasm in the Eastern cities, is expected to be just what the skating public has been looking for in Kentucky for some time.

The league, which is already being organized, will be made up of representatives of several Kentucky towns, all near Lexington.

Among the other cities which will probably be represented are Winchester, Danville and Beattyville, while Lexington may have two teams in the field.

WINCHESTER IN IT.

The management of the Skating Rink, state that Winchester will be represented in the polo league to be formed. The league will be composed of teams from the following towns, Winchester, Lexington, Frankfort, Danville and Beattyville.

The league will be run on the same order that the Blue Grass baseball league was run. At the close of the season a pennant will be awarded to the team winning the most games. Winchester did not get into the baseball league in time to make much showing at the close of the season but she will be one among the first who will enter the polo league and will furnish a good team that will put up a strong fight for the highest honors.

There was a polo team organized here last year and played a number of games that the public seemed to enjoy and it is needless to say that the games this year will be well attended.

WAR TO BE WAGED ON COAST RACING.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 14.—Cumulative evidence that the racing interests in California will be forced to fight for the life of the game at the coming session of the Legislature was strengthened yesterday by the news that Rudolph Spreckels, millionaire sugar king of San Francisco, and famous through his connection with the reform movement to clear the city of grafters, has decided to join issue with the religious element, which has announced its determination to have enacted a statute prohibiting betting on horse races in this State.

The Duchess' Philosophy.

The old duchess of Cleveland invited a relative to her husband's funeral and told him to bring his gun, adding: "We are old, we must die; but the pheasants must be shot."

PROFIT TAKING CAUSE OF SLUMP IN WHEAT.

Selling by Longs Results in Weakness With Other Grain Prices Off.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Profit taking on a liberal scale by leading longs caused weakness in the local wheat market today, final quotations showing net losses were also weak.

Range of Futures.

WHEAT—	Open	High
Decnew	1 01 1/4	1 01 1/2
May	1 04 1/4	1 04 1/2
July	99 3/4	99 3/4
Low	Close
Decnew	1 00 3/4	1 00 3/4
May	1 03 1/2	1 03 1/2
July	99 1/4	98 3/4
CORN—	Open	High
May	64 1/4	64 1/4
July	63 3/4	63 3/4
Low	Close
May	63 1/2	63 1/2
July	62 3/4	62 3/4

BE SINCERE.

Nothing adds so much to one's personal power as the knowledge that one is absolutely genuine and sincere.

If your life is a perpetual lie, if you know that you are not what you pretend to be, you cannot be strong. There is a continuous struggle with the truth going on inside you which saps your energy and warps character.

If there is a mote in your eye, remove it at once. Otherwise, you cannot look the world straight in the face. Further there will be a cloudiness, a haze, about your character which will be noticeable to those about you.

Strength lies in character. Deceit is weakness; sham and pretense are enfeebling. Only the genuine and the sincere are worth while.

A LITTLE FANCY NEEDED.

The Passaic (N. J.) educator who wants fairy tales and fables barred out of the public schools because so many of the children have to go to work at the age of 14, and have little enough time to acquire practical knowledge, is on the wrong track. Such children, above all others, need to have the faculty of imagination developed to the highest degree. For many of them there is not much left of the joys of childhood after leaving school save what they are able to wrest from the daily grind of life by the flights of fancy.—Philadelphia Record.

For Lack of a Better Reason.

It's likely that many a fellow who is scarcely able to take care of himself marries a girl on the theory that she will be able to help him do so.—Topeka Journal.

Quality, Appearance, Price, The Three Great Points in the Purchasing of a Stove.

How often do you have an opportunity to buy stoves with these three in points their favor?

If the appearance is right, the quality may not be up to the standard; but if both are satisfactory, the price may be prohibitive.

Here we have a stove of the best quality, attractive in every way, one that will prove satisfactory in every home, and stay so, and last, but not least, at a price which every one can afford to pay.

Foster's "Winner" Range has all the above points of Superiority, and can be bought at our store for a price easily in reach of all.

Need a Stove—Think It Over.

Grubbs & Benton,
ON THE CORNER.

An Advance for Winchester!

WE have just installed at great expense our new engine and other machinery with which we are now prepared to furnish DAY CURRENT for light and heat, and power for fans and other motors.

Let us give you estimates on this and all sorts of electric lighting.

Remember that electric light is superior to all others. It is safe, clean, cheap, comfortable, convenient, ever ready. We furnish it on meter if desired.

Winchester Railway, Light & Ice Co.

W. P. HACKETT, GENL. MGR.

P. S.—We furnish Ice in Winter as well as Summer.

MEANING NOT QUITE CLEAR

Friend's Remark That Left Mrs. Holliday in a State of Mild Wonderment.

There had been an unpleasant moment when Mrs. Holliday realized that she had on a somewhat soiled shirt-waist, whereas Mrs. Greenough's thin, pretty silk was spotless and in the height of style. Then she remembered her blessings. "It must be so hard for you, having your husband away traveling so much of the time," she said, sympathy in her gentle tone.

"Oh, I've grown used to it," said the prosperous Mrs. Greenough. "When he's at home, I mean in the city, he's generally at his club for the evening."

"I don't know what I should do if Edward went to a club," said Mrs. Holliday, with restored confidence in herself. "He spends all his evenings right at home with me, reading or playing duets."

"He was always just like that as a boy," said Mrs. Greenough, warmly. "Solid gold. Never cared for pleasures or entertainment or anything of the kind. He must be a comfort. Good-by, dear, here's my car."

"Good-by!" said Mrs. Holliday. "Now I wonder—" she murmured, as she twisted the wrists of her shirt-waist to make the soiled places come farther underneath.—Youth's Companion.

MISTER AND MONSIEUR.

The complaint that postmen are not allowed officially to be written to or of as "Mr." recalls the attempts that have been made to show that few of us are really entitled to that prefix. "Master," it is contended, was originally a form of address restricted to people of a certain standing, and has been cheapened even as "Esquire." But the case is not well made out. It is only clear that "Master" was once markedly respectful, and in the form "Mister" has become common property, while "Master" itself, curiously, has become confined to boys. At any rate the fall has not been so great as in the case of the French "Monsieur." At one time even a saint was spoken of as "Monsieur St. Jean," under the early Valois the king was "Monsieur" in public documents; and later it became the title of the king's younger brother. Nowadays "M." is merely on a level with "Mr."

LORD SALISBURY'S MISTAKE.

The recent death of Gen. Sir Redvers Buller of the British army recalls an incident in the life of Lord Salisbury which in a measure reflects official opinion on the failure of Gen. Buller in his brief career as commander of the British troops in the South African war.

The marquis of Salisbury, in the last years of his life, was almost blind and deaf. One day his secretary presented him with a package just arrived from Buckingham palace; it contained a large photograph of the king in uniform, with an affectionate autograph dedication for the old premier.

Lord Salisbury looked at the picture in silence for some minutes, and then, dropping it on the desk before him, he muttered: "Poor Buller! Poor Buller!"

In spite of his failure, however, Gen. Buller, until the day of his death, was the idol of the rank and file.

ADDS TO DIN OF PARIS.

While in America societies are being formed for the suppression of street noises, Paris has added another to the terror of the streets. It is a new form of bicycle alarm. The bell and the horn have had their day, and now the favorite "averfisseur" consists of a sort of miniature tambourine, which is struck by a small wooden hammer operated by contact with the spokes of the front wheel. It is certainly effective, but the noise is said to be enough to revive a cadaver. So great is the demand for the new alarm that in less than eight days a single shop sold more than a hundred of them.

WHEN THE QUEEN SLEEPS.

The bells in the abbey of Middleburg in Holland ring every quarter of an hour except when her majesty, Queen Wilhelmina, is visiting there; then they are quiet at night time, as the queen is not what might be called a sound sleeper, and cannot endure the noise.

LOOK LIKE PROSPERITY

THE only man who can find fault with the clothes we're offering this fall is the man who doesn't want to look as though he could lend money to his friends. Our suits and overcoats carry an air of prosperity as well as an atmosphere of good taste.

They are stylish. They have individuality.

The appearance, the lines of every garment suggest the idea that the man who selected it is a person of discrimination, of judgment in respect to wearing apparel.

For the younger element who like a bit of life and color in their clothes—a little dash about the cut and hang of their coats—we have a generous assortment to select from.

For the more conservative man of affairs, we have suits and overcoats that will lend dignity and strength of character to his appearance.

Most of our offerings were hand tailored by Stein-Bloch & Co. in the best clothes producing establishment in the world. It has become the best solely because it delivers clothing which affords the highest degree of satisfaction to clothes buyers.

A rich, warm suit, an overcoat that means snug comfort in the coldest kind of weather need not cost a lot of money.

Stein-Bloch clothes are moderate in price though they are made of splendid cassimeres, chevots and worsteds—all shrunk by the London Cold Water Process, which means that the life was not burned out of the cloth by steam shrinking.

"Nifty" Hats to match
our Suits.

"Walk-Over" and Hanan
Shoes to fit the feet.

ALLAN & MURPHY

ANNIVERSARY OF FAMOUS DEBATE.

ALTON, Ill., Oct. 14.—The fiftieth anniversary of the debate between Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas, at Alton, will be celebrated here this week, beginning Wednesday and concluding Saturday. The debate between the two statesmen took place at the northeast corner of the city hall, October 15, 1858.

The first day of the celebration will be "Home-coming day." On Thursday the debate proper will be celebrated. Among the speakers will be Adlai E. Stevenson, Democratic candidate for Governor of Illinois.

Friday will be "Old Settlers' day" and Saturday will be political day, with addresses by Gov. Willson, of Kentucky; Former Mayor Seth Low, of N. Y., and Senator Jeremiah Sullivan, of Iowa.

OPERA HOUSE.

"The people of the South" says Miss Beulah Poynter, "are peculiarly elannish, when it comes to their amusements, and show a remarkable fondness for plays that have the scenes laid on their side of the Mason and Dixon line. That is one reason that I think my play made out of Mary J. Holmes' delightful novel, 'Leana Rivers' met with such tremendous success down there."

The press said lots of nice things about us, and were very gracious to me, but I like to give the credit to the play. Even then it reflects commendation on me, because you know, I made the dramatization myself. Then, too the people of the South are intensely loyal to their favorites—far more so than the people of the North. I remember when I was very young Mr. Tim Murphy made a big success through the South with his play, "The Carpetbagger" and now goes South, year after year, and is always greeted by large audiences. Southerners delight to honor these who please them, and so the honors of all sorts are always accorded us—more than we can accept, for the life of a travelling actress is a hard one, and the exactions of a railway timetable are very trying. Particularly are the people there fond of hearing their own soft and sweet accent upon the stage, and to hear the beautiful magnolias and waving oaks praised in the proper lines of the playwright. The element of romance flames much more brightly there than in the North, which is probably the reason that our sort of play finds such favor."

TODAY'S TANGLE.

Now Roosevelt's answered Bryan, and Haskell's answered Hearst and everybody's lying to see who lies the worse; and Hearst has answered Haskell and all the coal oil gang, and every one's a rascal who ought to go and hang. Now Kern has answered Sherman, and Sherman's answered Kern, and neither man has whiskers amounting to a dern, and Debs has answered some one, and some one's answered Graves, and Hughes has bought a ticket that's good for seven shaves. And Taft has challenged Bruce Marcum to meet him in debate, and Mrs. Pinkham's answered the man who pays the freight. To all this answer business not ending does The News printers see, and it's got them rattled and batty as can be.—Breathitt News.

WOMAN IN PULPIT.

Mrs. Anna G. Abelson, wife of Rabbi J. I. Abelson of Akron, Ohio, surprised her husband's congregation recently by appearing in the pulpit to take the place of the Rabbi, who had been called away on business. The Jewish Tribune says: "It was the first time that a woman had taken the place of her husband in leading a Jewish service. The reports indicate that Mrs. Abelson created a favorable impression."

LARGEST ATTENDANCE.

The attendance at the World's Woman Suffrage Congress is pronounced by far the largest of any yet held, delegates being present from twenty-three different Nations. Among these are enfranchised women from Australia, New Zealand, Finland, Norway, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah and Idaho.

MRS. JULIA WARD HOWE.

Of all the fraternal delegates to the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which is holding its Biennial meeting in Boston, the most distinguished is Mrs. Julia Ward Howe. She represents the National American Woman Suffrage Association.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.

At the convention of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance now in session in Amsterdam, Holland, it has just been decided that the next congress shall be held in England.

May Be a Touch.

Don't feel flattered if a pretty girl smiles at you. Wait until you are absolutely sure she hasn't an amateur show ticket in her pocket.—Atchison Globe.

PATRONIZE HOME MERCHANTS.

The business community can afford to be broad and liberal, but there are certain things in which Lexington business men should stand together for Lexington, first, last and all the time. We should strive to keep as much of the Lexington trade at home as possible. We should practice as well as preach the patronage of home industries, merchants are improving their stores, and decreasing what some and home merchants. Lexington people have considered the necessity of going to Cincinnati or Louisville. They ought to be encouraged to further possibility for growth, aside from the fact that she is a great educational center, is in the opportunity for becoming a more important retail shopping center, and the wholesale distributing center for the Blue Grass and Eastern Kentucky.

The money that now goes to Louisville and Cincinnati, from Lexington and the territory that belongs to Lexington merchants, spent here would mean an increased volume of trade, more employment and more money in Lexington banks.

Believing that its first duty is to Lexington, and not in any spirit of hostility to Louisville or Cincinnati, it is the policy of The Herald to decline all advertising from those cities that seek to divert from Lexington the trade that should be given to home merchants. We regret that this is not the policy of all the Lexington newspapers.—Lexington Herald.

Let us apply this to Winchester.

WINCHESTER ROLLER MILLS.

The oldest and best institution in the county is the Winchester Roller Mills. Why not use home flour—the best made. Kerr Perfection and White Pearl flour has no equal. 10-12-1f.

DIFFERENT PETITIONS.

Lady Henry Somerset calls attention to the fact that 2584 different petitions for woman suffrage have been sent to Parliament.

AT FANCY PRICE.

Mr. Haney Hunt sold three mules to Beard and Mann, of Lexington, for $585.

TIDE GOOD.

Mr. Young reports that the tide is very good South of the L. & M. He arrived this afternoon.

Special 20 Per Cent Discount

THIS WEEK ONLY ON

American Standard Revised Bibles.

Pictures by Christy, Gibson, Fisher, and other popular Artists.

All new Books, including the best of Modern Fiction.

Toast Books, Artistic Gift Books, College Girl and Boy Record Books, Wedding Books, Etc.

Phillips Drug & Book Store.

People's State Bank

CAPITAL, $100,000

This bank began business less than three years ago, just in the beginning of the financial depression. Notwithstanding the hard times there has been a steady growth from the start, in the number of our depositors, and in the volume of our business. We enroll new names every week. We want yours. You are cordially invited to open an account with us. Personal attention to all business.

J. M. HODGKIN, Cashier.

J. L. BROWN, President.

L. B. COCKRELL, Vice President.

Conkright Transfer and Ice Co.
Crating, Handling and Hauling Furniture, Pianos, Etc., a Specialty.
No. 19 North Main Street. Both Phones

—CALL ON—
NELSON, The Transfer Man

by day or night, if you want your baggage transferred.
OFFICE—Home Phone 94; Night Phone 339.

"Always the same—sometimes better."

Brown-Proctoria Hotel

Woodson Moss, Manager

The best in the S
the money

THE WINCHESTER NEWS.

An Independent Newspaper.

Published by
The Winchester News Co.
(Incorporated.)
Office, South Main Street.

Daily, Except Sunday.

Entered at the Winchester Post Office as mail matter of the second class.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Winchester News is delivered by carrier at 10 cents per week. By mail, in advance
One year.....$3.00
Six months.....1.50
One month......25

New Phone No. 91.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1908.

A SUGGESTION.

What might have been a serious accident Wednesday morning was narrowly averted. An automobile driven at moderate speed frightened a horse, attached to a surrey containing four people. The accident happened in front of this office. On the car track, the unused car of the street car company is left standing. By reason of this, blocking of the street, the automobile found it impossible to avoid running into the horse. There was no room within which to turn the machine.

It seems to us that the street car company ought to find a more convenient place to store the car. The public street is for the use and convenience of the citizens. They are denied that use when such obstruction blocks the streets. It would be a simple matter for the company to arrange for a short side track on some lot on its route and run the cars in on that while not in use.

NEW CIRCULATION.

In conversation with one of the leading professional men of Winchester this morning, he remarked that he had taken copies of the first issue of The News with him on a trip he made to Jackson on Tuesday. He had distributed them to some of the prominent merchants of the Breathitt county capital and had heard many favorable comments on the paper. He suggested that we ought to make it our business to secure closer connection with the mountain country.

We replied that that was one of the plans already formed in The News office. We realize as every business man of Winchester must, that the greatest feeder for Winchester's retail trade comes from the country tapped by the L. & E. We have much of that trade now.

It will be part of the task of The News to aid in the extension of our business. We propose to put agents into all the small towns along the L. & E., to have correspondents in them and to see that the paper gets into the hands of the people there.

We have been too busy launching the paper in Winchester to take up that matter as yet. But it is one of the schemes of the immediate future. We propose to circulate a goodly number of copies all along the L. & E. railroad.

AERONAUTS RESCUED

After Thrilling Experience in the North Sea.

Berlin, Oct. 14.—The second of the three American balloons that started in the race for the international trophy on Sunday from Schmargendorf has met disaster in the North Sea. The St. Louis, manned by N. H. Arnold of North Adams, Mass., and Harry J. Hewitt, was carried overland by treacherous air currents and later, in the haze, the aeronauts lost their bearings until suddenly they saw the guard lights of an unknown coast. This meant they must descend or risk the danger of being driven far out of the track of vessels. They chose the former course, and for an hour they were buffeted by the waves, almost giving up in despair.

Eventually they were rescued by a lifeboat, and the first intimation that an accident had occurred to the St. Louis was conveyed in a wireless message from Arnold saying, "Lost everything in the North Sea."

Dies While at Forge.

Lawrence, O., Oct. 14.—George Carver, a blacksmith south of the city, died in his shop. He was working on a horse and had three shoes on the fourth and his hammer in his hand when he lay dead on the floor. When the owner of the forge, a carpenter was 54 and began county.

FOURTEEN MEETINGS

In Steel and Iron District Addressed by Judge Taft.

East Liverpool, O., Oct. 14.—In the midst of the steel and iron district of Cleveland, William H. Taft commanded the closest attention of an immense audience proverbially regarded as the hardest place in the state of Ohio for a political speaker to obtain a respectful hearing. The details of the meeting were not known to the candidate but a half hour before he reached the city. The immense tent in which it was held was reached by a four-mile automobile ride through Cleveland, and the audience patiently waited the half-hour delay caused by the lateness of the candidate's train. When Mr. Taft appeared he was warmly welcomed.

He began at once to talk with that earnestness which caused implicit attention. He showed from his viewpoint why it was that the American workmen need the protection of the tariff and what had been the result when he had not had that protection. Mr. Taft followed this with a detailed account of his own personal experience with the labor world.

The Taft special ran into its first mishap: The front trucks of the candidate's car and the rear trucks of the Pullman preceding it went off the track just as the train was coming to a halt on a siding at Sterling. A half-hour delay was caused, but no other damage was caused except the track torn up.

A tri-state rally is what the Taft special ran into here. Republicans and marching clubs from Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio towns thronged the city, filled the largest theater and compelled an open-air overflow meeting.

In discussing the issues Mr. Taft made a specific statement with reference to revision on the pottery schedule, 62 per cent of the table and toilet pottery of the country being manufactured here.

While 14 audiences were addressed by the candidate, his big meetings were at Wadsworth, Elyria, Lorain, Cleveland and East Liverpool.

ALLEGES THAT KEEFE IS PROMISED A JOB

Democratic Committee Issues a Statement.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Democratic national committee, through John J. Gordan, assistant and acting chief of the press bureau at headquarters, made public the following statement:

"It was stated at the national Democratic headquarters that President Roosevelt, by promise of office, has succeeded in having one of the big men of the American Federation of Labor desert President Gompers in his advocacy of the election of Mr. Bryan for the presidency.

"The labor leader in question is Daniel J. Keefe of Detroit, president of the International Association of Longshoremen, and one of the vice presidents of the American Federation of Labor.

"The Democratic committee alleges that Keefe and the president were closeted for several hours in Washington on Saturday, Oct. 3, and the offer of being named commissioner general of immigration, made vacant by the death of Commissioner Sargent, was made, in consideration of Keefe repudiating Mr. Gompers and the executive council of the federation.

"Keefe on Saturday last issued a statement in which he said, 'am going to vote for William H. Taft.'"

Keefe Makes Denial.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 14.—President Daniel J. Keefe of the longshoremen's union categorically denied the statement issued from Democratic headquarters in New York, that he had been offered the position of commissioner general of immigration in return for his support of William H. Taft.

Loeb Makes Statement.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Secretary Loeb, upon being shown the statement issued from Democratic headquarters in New York, said nothing in the nature of a reply would be given out at the White House, but that the charge would probably receive attention today. Daniel J. Keefe was one of the president's callers on Oct. 3. Patrick H. Morrissey of Cleveland, O., head of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, also saw the president the same day.

Strike Copper in Logan.

Bellefontaine, O., Oct. 14.—What is believed to be a rich vein of copper ore has been discovered on the Haas farm, in eastern Logan county, and samples have been sent to a Cleveland assayer. It is said that in pioneer days the Indians had copper ornaments which they made in this country, but that they always refused to reveal the whereabouts of the hidden mine.

Shoots Sons and Self.

Goldsberry, Mo., Oct. 14.—D. O. Seaman, a farmer, went to the district school near here, called out his two sons, aged 10 and 12 respectively, shot one of them dead, mortally wounded the other, and then shot and killed himself. The cause of the tragedy is not known.

STATE CANDIDATES

Accompany William J. Bryan on Tour of Nebraska.

Wahoo, Neb., Oct. 14.—Accompanied by all the Democratic candidates for state offices, with the exception of one or two, W. J. Bryan campaigned in his own state, and at this place completed the first of his three-days' Nebraska tour. Big crowds greeted him at every point, and when his day's work was over he had delivered 21 speeches, varying in length from five minutes to an hour. His arguments were confined mostly to answering the statements of Mr. Taft and Governor Hughes, who but recently visited Nebraska. The audiences were mostly farmers, and the Democratic candidate frequently moved them to loud applause. The route traversed was through numerous Republican strongholds. A carload of speakers was brought along out of Omaha and at each place visited by Mr. Bryan one was dropped off to complete the work of expounding Democratic doctrine. Mr. Bryan accused Mr. Taft of not making the speech in Nebraska that he had been making in other parts of the country.

"He did not discuss the guarantee of bank deposits," he said, "doubtless because he was informed that the people of Nebraska are in favor of the guaranteeing of depositors. His appeal was to the farmers, and it was based upon the fact that the farmers have had good crops and fair prices, but did the Republican party give you good crops? All who think the Republican party is responsible for good crops should thank the Republican party. Those who believe as we do, that the good crops are due to the fertility of the soil, to seasonable rains and to the warmth of the sunshine, should thank the Almighty."

Democratic Claims.

- New York, Oct. 14.—Vice Chairman Hudspeth of the Democratic national committee made public a list of the states in which he says Mr. Bryan would receive the electoral vote. They are as follows:
- The solid south, 166.
- Nebraska, 8.
- Indiana, 15.
- Ohio, 23.
- West Virginia, 7.
- Nevada, 3.
- New York, 39.
- Total—261.
- Necessary to a choice, 242.

BENNETT IS NAMED

As Dupont's Successor on Speakers' Bureau of Republican Committee.

New York, Oct. 14.—Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee announced that Representative W. S. Bennett, member of the lower house of congress from one of the districts in New York city, had been selected as chairman of the speakers' bureau in place of Mr. Dupont, who recently resigned.

There was a meeting of the executive committee of the Republican national committee at headquarters, at which the political situation was generally discussed. Senator Crane of Massachusetts, a member of the Republican advisory committee, met the various heads of the departments.

Chairman Woodruff of the state Republican committee went over the registration figures for Greater New York and gave it as his opinion that it was impossible for either Bryan or Chanler to get a majority of more than 100,000 out of the registration, and that those candidates must get more than that to win in the state.

Steals Jewels From Wagon.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 14.—The police are without a clue to the identity of a daring robber who secured jewels valued at several thousand dollars from a treasure wagon of the Adams Express company on Euclid avenue during the rush hour. The wagon, barred and grated save for a small space in the rear of the driver's seat, responded to a call from a Euclid avenue jewelry store. The driver left the wagon for a moment to go to the store entrance to call a clerk. He turned to see a man jump from the driver's seat of his wagon with a hand satchel containing diamonds and jewels collected earlier in the trip.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE NEWS.

CABINETS

WE MAKE ANYTHING
IN MILL WORK.

R. P. SCOBEE & SON CO.
INCORPORATED.

TRAIN SCHEDULE.

Passenger trains leave Winchester as follows:

C. & O. EAST BOUND.
No. 26, Daily Ex. Sunday... 8:42 a. m.
No. 23, Daily..... 11:57 a. m.
No. 28, Daily Ex. Sunday... 6:30 p. m.
No. 24, Daily..... 9:25 p. m.

C. & O. WEST BOUND.
No. 27, Daily Ex. Sunday... 6:32 a. m.
No. 21, Daily..... 8:03 a. m.
No. 25, Daily Ex. Sunday... 2:50 p. m.
No. 29, Daily..... 4:38 p. m.

L. & N. SOUTH BOUND.
No. 29, Daily Ex. Sunday... 8:55 a. m.
No. 33, Daily..... 11:59 a. m.
No. 9, Daily Ex. Sunday... 6:27 p. m.
No. 31, Daily..... 11:09 p. m.

L. & N. NORTH BOUND.
No. 34, Daily..... 4:48 a. m.
No. 10, Daily Ex. Sunday... 7:18 a. m.
No. 32, Daily..... 2:50 p. m.
No. 28, Daily Ex. Sunday... 4:38 p. m.

L. & E. EAST BOUND.
No. 2, Daily Ex. Sunday... 3:05 p. m.
No. 4, Daily..... 8:18 a. m.

L. & E. WEST BOUND.
No. 1, Daily Ex. Sunday... 9:12 a. m.
No. 3, Daily..... 5:20 p. m.

J. B. HAMPTON, President. B. F. CURTIS, Cashier.

Mark County National Bank

MAIN STREET.

Winchester, - - Kentucky

Capital, $200,000.
Surplus, $100,000.
Undivided Profits, $38,000

Organized 1865, being the oldest Bank in the city.
Collections made on all points, and your accounts solicited.

MAKE LIFE WORTH LIVING

By Buying Your

Racket Goods, Paint
Wall Paper and Floor Oil Cloth

From

Baber & Reeves,
HOME PHONE - - 224.
No. 9 E. Broadway.

Kindly Remember

The Postal Telegraph and Cable Co.

receives results of National and American League Games for Championship. Will cheerfully give any information possible. Call us at our office, Brown-Proctoria.

BOTH PHONES.

L. M. Butsch
Manager

1835-1903.

THE BEST INSURANCE IS THE CHEAPEST

If you are not insured find our office at once. Write or phone for rates and terms. Before insuring, see us. WE ARE THE BEST.

JOUETT'S INSURANCE AGENCY,
Simpson Building. Both Phones 71.

BUY GOOD CLOTHES

WE do not aim at the extremes—low price and high quality—neither you nor we can get both at the same time.

Quality is Our Motto

Eventually every one will see the economy of really good clothes like the "MAXWELL" kind—style, colors, tailoring; everything is permanent; will endure.

We shall be pleased to show you the fall line.

$15.00 to $35.00

Men's Shoes of the Better Kind, $3.50 to $6.50

STETSON HATS.

RUPARD-STEWART CO.

Are You Ready?

WE ARE!

TO SELL YOU GUNS, SHELLS, LEGGINS, HUNTING COATS, LOADING SETS, CLEANING RODS—EVERYTHING YOU NEED WHEN HUNTING.

ALSO, EVERYTHING IN HARDWARE, STOVES, GRANITEWARE, BLACKSMITHS' MATERIAL, TOOLS, CUTLERY, SKATES, Etc.

THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES, CONSISTENT WITH GOOD BUSINESS. YOUR PATRONAGE SOLICITED.

R. E. MARTIN, Salesman.

W. T. HAMON,

OPPOSITE COURT HOUSE, WINCHESTER, KY.

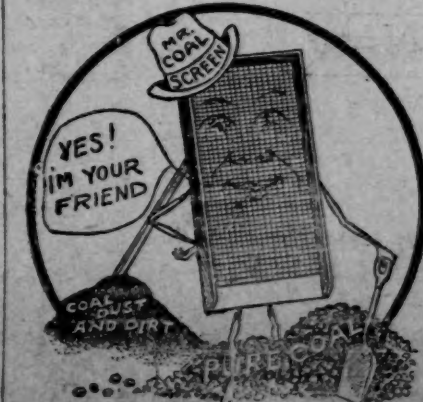

ROYAL BABY PLATE

'THE RIM DOES IT' No tray No pusher
Nousing fingers
Will not upset
No spilling food

TEACHES THE BABY HOW TO EAT.

The Winn Furniture Co.

CLEAN COAL!

All our coal is carefully screened, and, consequently, it is free from dirt and dust. Carefully screened coal naturally gives the best heat. Another important item is that in buying our coal you do not pay for any waste. You get absolutely the best coal in the market and at no higher price than you pay for inferior quality. Call or telephone.

WINN-MARTIN COAL & SUPPLY CO.
INCORPORATED.

Fall Dress Goods.

We easily carry the fullest line of the very latest Fall Dress Goods. In our Wool Dress Goods stock you will find assortments that certainly give the widest latitude in selection that you have ever had in this store. It is said that a Dry Goods store is known by the kind and character of its Dress Goods and Silk business. We are satisfied to be judged by these two departments.

Dress Goods

These run in prices from $1.00 to $4.00 per yard.

Voiles, plain, per yard,.....	$1.00 to $2.50
Voiles, fancy, per yard,.....	$1.25 to $2.50
Broadcloths, foreign and domestic, per yard.....	$1.00 to $4.00
Bordered Tailor Suitings, per yard,.....	$1.00 to $3.50
Shadow Stripes, per yard,.....	$1.00 to $2.00
Wool Batiste 36 inches wide, in all shades,...	50c

Silks

Messalines, street and evening shades, per yard. 69c to $1.00

Satins

36 inch Satins in all shades, per yard,..... $1.00

Ready-Made Dept.

Waists

New fancy Waists from.....$5.00 to $15.00
Plain white tailored Waists from.....$1.50 up

Suits

Women who buy their apparel here have the assurance that they are getting the best quality, the best fit, at the best price—a moderate one. A style to suit every figure.

Dress-Making

Miss Bowen is again in charge of our dress-making department.

Furs

The choicest skins of fur-bearing animals for Neck-Wear, Muffs and Coats, perfect in fit and up-to-date.

Bordered Flannelettes

Come in and let us show you what we have in Bordered Flannelettes.

We have a beautiful line of new Counterpanes, from $1.00 up

A choice lot of Battenburg pieces Dresser scarfs, Table Covers, Dollies.

Gloves

All our Gloves are guaranteed and carefully fitted to the hand. Perrin's are known the world over as the best.

We have also a full line of short Gloves—the season's very latest.

WE PARTICULARLY INVITE THE LADIES OF WINCHESTER AND CLARK COUNTY TO VISIT OUR STORE AND INSPECT ALL OUR FALL GOODS.

CLIFTON B. ROSS,

South Main Street,

Opp. Court House,

Winchester.

SOCIETY

Mr. James Poynter has been at his old game of fishing. Because the weather was warm Tuesday he again took hook and bait. You had might as well ask how old Ann is, as to ask if he ever caught any fish!

Candy Pulling.

The girls from Miss Rose Baldwin's store, had a candy-pulling at Miss Gertrude Bush's home on Tuesday night. There was great fun in burning the hands and dropping the candy but a little black doesn't hurt. Those who enjoyed the fun were: Misses Phoebe Lambert, Bess Peddicord, Mrs. Middleton, Mrs. John O'Rear, Misses Mary Curry, Ethel Porter, J. Porter, Alma Rupard, Edna Ramsey, Moore, Gertie Bush and Evelyn Price.

Hogan-Green.

As the clock was striking one, Mr. Ed. Green and Miss Edith Hogan, were united in the holy bands of matrimony by Rev. J. H. Mae Neill. Immediately afterwards, the happy couple left for Cincinnati for a few days. On their return they will stay with her father until Jan. 1, and then go to housekeeping in the groom's home on B street. The bride is a young woman of lovely character and justly popular, while Mr. Green is a most honorable and upright man worthy of the bride he has won. Their many friends wish them all the happiness and success to be had in this life.

Card of Announcement.

The following cards have been sent out:

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Feld announce the marriage of their daughter Mary
to
Mr. Louis Judah
Sunday, October the eleventh nineteen hundred and eight
1503 Lincoln Avenue
Walnut Hills, Cincinnati.

Delightful Social.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the social given at the home of Mrs. J. W. Green, Thursday night, on the Ruckerville pike.

The entertainment was given in honor of her niece, Miss Margaret Mockabee, of Morehouse, Mo., who has been in the county visiting for several weeks. Among those present were: Misses Ethel Brookshire, Mary Mann, Carrie Lee Warner, Jennie McKinney, of Winchester, Minnie and Elizabeth Watts, Ida Wells, Minnie and Mary Blanton, Alva and Francis Heflin, Millie Witt, Ruth and Callie McKinney and Leila Burgher.

Messrs. George and Albert Fox, Clay, Lee and Hala Aldridge, Cleveland Watts, Oliver Greening, Charlie and Perry Wells, Ernest Gilbert Walter Ballard, Walter Gamboe, Ernest Webber, Joe Estes, John and Matt Thomas, Wallace Burgher, C. C. Perry, B. D. Witt, Shelle White, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Gilbert.

Mrs. W. D. Owens is visiting relatives in Lexington.

Bush-Simms.

This afternoon, "The Maples," the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ragland, was made resplendent with its decorations of palms, ferns and potted plants in honor of the marriage of their niece, Miss Wheeler Ragland Bush, to Mr. Grimal Simms.

Promptly at three o'clock, Mr. W. E. Frazer, of Lexington and pastor of Forest Grove Church, married them.

The bride wore a beautiful blue tailored suit, with hat and gloves to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Simms left immediately for a visit to relatives and will go to housekeeping in town on their return. The bride is a most charming girl and all their friends wish them a long life and a prosperous one.

PERSONALS.

The many friends of Mr. Woodson McCord are sorry to hear that he is not so well.

Beginning on November 8th, Dr. J. W. Porter, of Lexington, will hold a protracted meeting at the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Rachel Morgan goes to Lexington today to be gone several days.

Miss Addie Peoples, is spending a few days with Mrs. David Thomson.

Miss Geneva Adams, of Clay City, is in town to attend the Green-Hogan wedding.

Mrs. Frank C. Wallis, of Louisiana, is in town on business.

Mr. Arnold, of Richmond, is in town on business.

Mr. D. B. Price, of Versailles, one of the prominent laymen of the State delegates, is in town.

Mrs. J. B. Hampton, of Owingsville, is in town visiting her mother, Mrs. J. E. Gtiskill.

Miss Edna Gtiskill, has returned home from a visit to Owingsville.

Mr. Clarence Lebus, was in the city, Tuesday, on business in connection with the Barley Tobacco Society.

Samuel A. Ramsey is out again after a long spell of fever.

S. A. Ramsey, Mrs. Jas. S. Ramsey and little son, Henry Hart, left Wednesday for a visit to Mrs. Ed. Patterson, of White Oak.

Miss Addie Peoples, of Tennessee, is visiting her father, Rev. J. R. Peoples.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. G. Lee Wainscott have received letters in the last few days reporting her rapid recovery for appendicitis. She was operated on by Dr. Mayo, of Rochester, Minn., on the 8th. She was accompanied to Minnesota by her husband and her mother, Mrs. Harvey A. Rogers.

Mr. W. P. Azbill leaves Wednesday for Middleboro, in the interest of the Winchester Granite and Brick Co. Messrs. Matt Bean and John Bean went fishing.

Mr. Frank Gordon has gone to Horse Cave on business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Wood, of Lexington, are visiting Mrs. Lowe.

Mrs. Thomas Satterwhite, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs. Mollie Durall.

Mrs. Roger Smith, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs. James Oliver.

Miss Carrie Goff, of Lexington, spent Tuesday in town.

Mrs. Sam Rutledge has gone to the country to spend a few days.

Mrs. W. Z. Eubank entertained the Ladies Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, Monday at Oil Springs.

Miss Ruby Bush left Tuesday afternoon for Lexington to be gone several days.

Misses Sallie and Ketinah Green, of Mt. Sterling are the attractive guests of Mrs. Will Haggard.

Mr. Earl King, of Ashland, Ky., is the guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brooks, have engaged a suite of rooms with Mrs. George Kohlhaas, for the first of November and will spend the winter here.

Col. Howard Mann, of Waco, Texas, who has been in Lexington attending the Trots, is spending a few days with the family of W. R. Lane, on Boone street.

Mrs. Waller Bean is visiting her sister in Omaha Neb.

Rev. C. A. Tague, of Richmond, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday on business.

Miss Annie Craxton is spending a few days with Mrs. Nelson Gay.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hague, of Too Good to Forget!

"The performance of labor for the benefit of another"—that's what "service" is—and that's especially what OUR service is. "We work for your benefit." We so select our stock that we may sell the best for the lowest prices that you may derive the benefit. We gather together all the supposedly better things for your benefit. We so conduct our business as to afford YOU every possible advantage. This Service is "Too Good to Forget."

C. H. BOWEN, Jeweler and Optician.

ARTIS & TURNBULL

ANNOUNCE THE ARRIVAL

(DAILY)

—OF—

NEW MODELS

—IN—

SUITS, COATS, WAISTS AND SKIRTS

Our Strictly Tailored Models Reveal in a Marked Degree that Indefinite Something Called Style.

Autumn's Newest Textures

IN HIGH GRADE SILKS AND DRESS GOODS.

We Invite You to inspect the Season's Newest Ideas, Weaves and Textures in Our Varied and Extensive Stock.

Frankfort, arrived to attend the French-Pickrell wedding.

Dr. E. M. Green, Attorney C. C. Fox, of Danville and Rev. Mr. Orpheus shoemaker, of Pisga are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Beckner.

Mr. Will Hall, of Shelbyville, was the guest of his cousin, Mr. H. H. Hall, Thursday.

R. P. Gregory, of Madison county, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. H. Hall the first of the week.

Mrs. Emma Gregory, who has been ill at her daughters' Mrs. H. H. Hall, is greatly improved.

Mrs. T. W. S. Van Meter and Mrs. Lucien Beckner will leave for Lexington to attend the State Conference of the D. A. R.'s. They go as delegates from Heart Chapters.

Cut Glass at Cut Prices

I purchased a selection at a bankrupt sale while in New York

Mrs. Ella W. Haggard

The Younger Set

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS,

Author of "The Fighting Chance," Etc.

Copyright, 1907, by Robert W. Chambers

I'm going to plant myself here on you."

"Don't notice him, Austin," said Nina; "he only wishes to be implored. And by the same token you'd both better let me implore you to dress!" She rose and bent forward in the firelight to peer at the clock. "Goodness! Do you creatures think I'm going to give Eileen half an hour's start with her maid and I carrying my twelve years' handicap too? No, indeed! I'm decrepit, but I'm going to die fighting. Austin, get up! You're horribly slow anyhow. Phil, Austin's man—such as he is—will be at your disposal, and your luggage is unpacked."

In the hallway Selwyn and Austin encountered a radiant and bewildering vision awaiting them—Eileen in all her glory.

"Wonderful!" said Gerard, patting the vision's rounded bare arm as he hurried past. "Fine gown, fine girl! But I've got to dress, and so has Phil." He meant well.

"Do you like it, Captain Selwyn?" asked the girl, turning to confront him where he had halted. "Gerard isn't coming, and I thought perhaps you'd be interested."

The formal, half patronizing compliment on his tongue's tip remained there unsaid. He stood silent, touched by the faint underling wistfulness in the laughing voice that challenged his opinion, and something within him responded in time:

"Your gown is a beauty; such wonderful lace. Of course anybody would know it came straight from Paris or from some other celestial region."

She colored enchantingly and, with pretty, frank impulse, held out both her hands to him.

"You are dear, Captain Selwyn! It is my first real dinner gown, and I'm quite mad about it, and somehow I wanted the family to share my madness with me. Nina will. She gave it to me, the darling. Austin admires it, too, of course, but he doesn't notice such things very closely, and Gerard isn't here. Thank you for letting me show it to you before I go down."

She gave both his hands a friendly little shake and, glancing down at her skirt in blissful consciousness of its perfection, stepped backward into her own room.

Later, while he stood at his dresser constructing an immaculate knot in his white tie, Nina knocked.

"Hurry, Phil! Oh, may I come in? You ought to be downstairs with us, you know. And it was very sweet of you to be so nice to Eileen. The child had tears in her eyes when I went in. Oh, just a single diamond drop in each. Your sympathy and interest did it. I think the child misses her father on an occasion such as this—the beginning of life, the first step out into the world. Men do not understand what it means to us. Gerard doesn't, I'm sure. I've been watching her, and I know the shadow of that dreadful tragedy falls on her more often than Austin and I are aware of. You are among your own people, anyhow!"

His own people! The impatient tenderness of his sister's words had been sounding in his ears all through the evening. They rang out clear and insistent amid the tumult of the dinner. He heard them in the laughing confusion of youthful voices. They stole into the delicate undertones of the music to mock him. The rustling of silk and lace repeated them. The high heels of satin slippers echoed them in irony.

His own people! The scent of overheated flowers, the sudden warm breeze eddying from a capricious fan, the mourning thrill of the violins, emphasized the emphasis of the words.

And they sounded sadder and more meaningless now to him, here in his own room, until the monotony of their recurrent mockery began to unnerve him.

He turned on the electricity, shrank from it, exhaled it. And for a long time he sat there in the darkness of early morning, his unfilled pipe clutched in his nerveless hand.

Chapter 3

TO pick up once more and tighten and knot together the loosened threads which represented the unfinished record that his race had woven into the social fabric of the metropolis was merely an automatic matter for Selwyn.

His own people had always been among the makers of that fabric. Into part of its vast and intricate pattern they had woven an inconspicuously honorable record—chronicles of births and deaths and marriages, a plain memorandum of plain living and upright dealing with their fellow men.

Some public service of modest nature they had performed, not seeking it, not shirking, accomplishing it cleanly when it was intrusted to them.

His forefathers had been, as a rule, professional men—physicians and lawyers. His grandfather died under the walls of Chautauque castle while twisting a tourniquet for a cursing dragon; an uncle remained indefinitely at Malvern Hill; an only brother at Montauk Point sickened in the trenches before Santiago.

His father's services as division medical officer in Sheridan's cavalry had been perhaps no more devoted, no more loyal than the services of thousands of officers and troopers, and his reward was a pension offer, declined. He practiced until his wife died, then retired to his country home, from which house his daughter Nina was married to Austin Gerard.

Mr. Selwyn, Sr., continued to pay his taxes on his father's house in Tenth street, voted in that district, spent a month every year with the Gerards and judiciously enlarged the family reservation in Greenwood, whither he retired in due time.

The first gun off the Florida keys sent Selwyn's only brother from his law office in hot haste to San Antonio.

That same gun interrupted Selwyn's connection with Neergard & Co., operators in Long Island real estate, and a year later the captaincy offered him in a western volunteer regiment operating on the island of Leyte completed the rupture.

And now he was back again, a chance career ended, with option of picking up the severed threads—his inheritance at the loom—and of retying them, warp and weft, and continuing the pattern according to the designs of the tufted, tinted pile yarn knotted in by his ancestors before him.

Meanwhile he was looking for two things—an apartment and a job—the first energetically combated by his immediate family.

It was rather odd—the scarcity of jobs. Of course Austin offered him one, which Selwyn declined at once, enraging his brother-in-law.

"But what do I know about the investment of trust funds?" demanded Selwyn. "You wouldn't take me if I were not your wife's brother, and that's nepotism."

Austin's harmless fury raged for nearly ten minutes, after which he cheered up, relighted his cigar and resumed his discussion with Selwyn concerning the merits of various boys' schools, the victim in prospective being Billy.

A little later, reverting to the subject of his own enforced idleness, Selwyn said, "I've been on the point of going to see Neergard, but somehow I can't quite bring myself to it—slinking into his office as a rank failure in one profession to ask him if he has any use for me again."

"Stuff and fancy!" growled Gerard. "It's all stuff and fancy about your being any kind of a failure. If you want to resume with that Dutchman, go to him and say so. If you want to invest anything in his Long Island schemes he'll take you in fast enough. He took in Gerard and some twenty thousand."

"Isn't he very prosperous, Austin?" "Very—on paper. Long Island farm lands and mortgages on Hampton hen-coops are not fragrant propositions to me. But there's always one more way of making a living after you counted 'em all up on your fingers. If you've any capital to offer Neergard, he won't shrink for help."

"But isn't suburban property?" "On the jump? Yes—both ways. Oh, I suppose that Neergard is all right. If he wasn't I wouldn't have permitted Gerard to go into it. Neergard sticks to his commissions and doesn't back his fancy in certified checks. I don't know exactly how he operates. I only know that we find nothing in that sort of thing for our own account. But Fane, Harmon & Co. do. That's their affair too. It's all a matter of taste, I tell you."

Selwyn reflected: "I believe I'd go and see Neergard if I were perfectly sure of my personal sentiments toward him. He's been civil enough to me, of course, but I have always had a curious feeling about Neergard—that he's forever on the edge of doing something—doubtful."

"His business reputation is all right. He shaves the dead blue like a safety razor, but he's never yet cut through it. On principle, however, look out for an apple faced Dutchman with a thin nose and no lips. Neither Jew, Yankee nor American stands any chance in a deal with that type of financier. Personally my feeling is this: If I've got to play games with Julius Neergard, I'd prefer to be his partner. And so I told Gerard. By the way."

Austin checked himself, looked down at his cigar, turned it over, and over several times, then continued quietly: "By the way, I suppose Gerard is like other young men of his age and times—immersed in his own affairs—thoughtless perhaps, perhaps a trifle selfish in the cross country gallop after pleasure. I was rather severe with him about his neglect of his sister. He ought to have come here to pay his respects to you too."

"Oh, don't put such notions into his head!"

"Yes, I will," insisted Austin. "How ever indifferent and thoughtless and selfish he is to other people, he's got to be considerate toward his own family, and I told him so. Have you seen him lately?"

"No-o," admitted Selwyn.

"Not since the first time when he came to do the civil by you?"

"No, but don't!"

"Yes, I will," repeated his brother-in-law, "and I'm going to have a thorough explanation with him and learn what he's up to. He's got to be decent to his sister. He ought to report to me occasionally. That's all there is to it. He has entirely too much liberty, with his bachelor quarters and his junior whippersnapper club and his house parties and his cruises on Neergard's boat!"

He got up, casting his cigar from him, and moved about bulkily, muttering of matters to be regulated, and firmly too. But Selwyn, looking out of the window across the park, knew perfectly well that young Erroll, now of age, with a small portion of his handsome income at his mercy, was past the regulating stage and beyond the authority of Austin. There was no harm in him. He was simply a joyous, pleasure loving cub, chock full of energetic instincts, good and bad, right and wrong, out of which, formed from the acts which become habits, character matures. This was his estimate of Gerald.

The next morning, riding in the park with Eileen, he found a chance to speak cordially of her brother.

"I've meant to look up Gerald," he said, as though the neglect were his own fault, "but every time something happens to switch me on to another track."

"I'm afraid that I do a great deal of the switching," she said, "don't I? But you've been so nice to me and to the children that—"

Miss Erroll's horse was behaving badly, and for a few moments she became too thoroughly occupied with her mount to finish her sentence.

The belted groom galloped up, prepared for emergencies, and he and Selwyn sat their saddles watching a pretty battle for mastery between a beautiful horse determined to be bad and a very determined young girl who had decided he was going to be good.

Once or twice the excitement of solicitude sent the color flying into Selwyn's temples. The bridle path was narrow and stiff with freezing sand, and the trees were too near for such lively maneuvers, but Miss Erroll had made up her mind, and Selwyn already had a humorous idea that this was no light matter. The horse found it serious enough, too, and suddenly concluded to be good. And the pretty scene ended so abruptly that Selwyn laughed aloud as he rejoined her.

"There was a man—Boots Lansing—in Bannard's command. One night on Samar the bolo men rushed us, and Lansing got into the six foot major's boots by mistake—seven leaguers, you know—and his horse bucked him clean out of them."

"Hence his Christian name, I suppose," said the girl. "But why such a story, Captain Selwyn? I believe I stuck to my saddle."

"With both hands," he said cordially, always alert to plague her, for she was adorable when teased, especially in the beginning of their acquaintance before she had found out that it was a habit of his, and her bright confusion always delighted him into further mischief.

"But I wasn't a bit worried," he continued. "You had him so firmly around the neck. Besides, what horse or man could resist such a pleading pair of arms around the neck?"

"What you saw," she said, flushing up, "is exactly the way I shall do any pleading with the two animals you mention."

Later she remarked, "It's just as Nina says, after all, isn't it?"

"I suppose so," he replied suspiciously. "What?"

"That Gerald isn't really very wicked, but he likes to have us think so. It's a sign of extreme self-consciousness, isn't it," she added innocently, "when a man is afraid that a woman thinks he is very, very good?"

"That," he said, "is the limit. I'm going to ride by myself."

Her pleasure in Selwyn's society had gradually become such genuine pleasure, her confidence in his kindness so unaffectedly sincere, that insensibly she had fallen into something of his manner of badinage—especially since she realized how much amusement he found in her own smiling confusion when unexpectedly assailed. Also, to her surprise, she found that he could be plagued very easily, though she did not quite dare it at first, in view of his impressive years and experience.

But, once goaded to it, she was astonished to find how suddenly it seemed to readjust their personal relations—years and experience falling from his shoulders like a cloak which had concealed a man very nearly her own age, years and experience adding themselves to her, and at least an inch to her stature to redress the balance between them.

It had amused him immensely as he realized the subtle change, and it pleased him, too, because no man of thirty-five cares to be treated like a grandfather by a girl of nineteen, even if she has not yet worn the polish from her first pair of high heeled shoes.

"It's astonishing," he said, "how little respect infirmity and age command in these days."

"I do respect you," she insisted, "especially your infirmity of purpose. You said you were going to ride by yourself. But, do you know, I don't believe you are of a particularly solitary disposition. Are you?"

He laughed at first, then suddenly his face fell.

"Not from choice," he said under his breath. Her quick ear heard, and she turned, semi-serious, questioning him with raised eyebrows.

"Nothing. I was just muttering. I've a villainous habit of muttering muzzy nothings."

"You did say something!"

"No: only zhoulish gabble, the mere murky mouthings of a meager mind."

"You did. It's rude not to repeat it when I ask you."

"I didn't mean to be rude."

"Then repeat what you said to yourself."

"Do you wish me to?" he asked, raising his eyes so gravely that the smile faded from lip and voice when she answered: "I beg your pardon, Captain Selwyn. I did not know you were serious!"

Gerald Erroll.

"Oh, I'm not," he returned lightly. "I'm never serious. No man who soliloquizes can be taken seriously. Don't you know, Miss Erroll, that the crowning absurdity of all tragedy is the soliloquy?"

Her smile became delightfully uncertain. She did not quite understand him, though her instinct warned her that for a second something had menaced their understanding.

Riding forward with him through the crisp sunshine of mid-December, the word "tragedy" still sounding in her ears, her thoughts reverted naturally to the only tragedy besides her own which had ever come very near to her—his own.

Could he have meant that? Did people mention such things after they had happened? Did they not rather conceal them, hide them deeper and deeper with the aid of time and the kindly years for a burial past all recollection?

Troubled, uncomfortably intent on evading every thought or train of ideas evoked, she put her mount to a gallop. But thought kept pace with her.

(To be continued.)

Persian Easy Language to Learn. Persian is said to be not a very difficult language. The modern Persian is very much like the English in its sensible rejection of the inflections that burden so many of the world's tongues.

JUST A MINUTE

Of your time will be required to read this advertisement, but it will take considerably more time for you to make a critical inspection of our very complete stock of

Furniture and Undertaking and you will find here all the new things in every line. Furthermore, the exceedingly moderate prices we have placed on all goods is a special inducement that you cannot overlook.

HALL & ECTON, Furniture, - - - Rugs.

GAS STOVES!

The cool nights remind us that it's time for Heaters. We have a great variety of Gas Heaters, guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Come and see us if you want a Gas or Coal Stove. Examine our line before purchasing elsewhere.

Grant Witt & Co.,

30 N. Main St., - Winchester, Ky.

To Start the Ball Rolling

The Star Is Offering INDUCEMENTS!

FIRST - CLASS and up-to-date Clothing, Dry Goods, Shoes and Furnishings at a saving of 10 to 20 per cent. Just think of it in the very nick of time when you must have the goods, as the old version—"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

We are ready and willing to show you the greatest and best line of merchandise ever brought to this city, at a great saving.

Come and see our line of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children.

Come and see our line of Shoes and Rubber Goods for Men, Women and Children. We guarantee quality and price on every pair.

Come and see our line of Cloaks, Furs and Ready-made Skirts. It is to your interest to do so.

We Guarantee to Give You $1.20 in Merchandise for $1.00 Cash. For a Sample Price for You to Go By, We Are Selling Men's 50c Underwear (Fleeced or Ribbed) for 40c; Ladies' 25c Ribbed Underwear for 20c.

YOURS FOR BUSINESS

The Star

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING AND SHOE HOUSE,

A. FELD, Proprietor.

NEXT TO WINCHESTER DRUG CO.

NO MORE

HALF SOLEING

R.P. SMITH & SONS CO. CHICAGO IMPERISHABLE SOLE TRADE MARK

No more half-soleing if you wear Imperishable Sole Work Shoes. Imperishable Sole Shoes will cut wear any two or more ordinary soles. This sole leather is tanned by a new process that makes it the greatest wearing leather ever made. Every man should see them. Every pair of Imperishable Sole Shoes has the above trade-mark stamped on the soles. Be sure and get the genuine.

We are Sole Agents for this Particular Shoe

As well as the Packard Shoe for Men. Also the Sachs Manufacturing Shoes for Ladies. We also sell the Red School House Shoe for Misses and Children. Every pair we sell is guaranteed. All we want you to do is to give us a call.

OUR AIM IS TO MAKE A PATRON OF YOU AND TO HOLD YOU.

BUSY BUILDERS

often run short of lumber supplies, because they fail to select a thoroughly reliable dealer, or one who does not carry large enough stock. By making your contracts for any kind of lumber with the Winchester Lumber & M'f'g Co., efficient service is guaranteed. We deal in the best grades of hard and soft woods, lath, shingles, hard wood flooring, etc., thoroughly seasoned.

YOU'RE "UP AGAINST IT!"

a hard problem—if to save a few dollars you try to get handsome interior wood work out of inferior lumber. The carefully selected, soundly seasoned hard wood we supply for this part of house construction will be a source of gratification to you the longest day you live. Your satisfaction will not be lessened by our pricing.

FENCE TALK

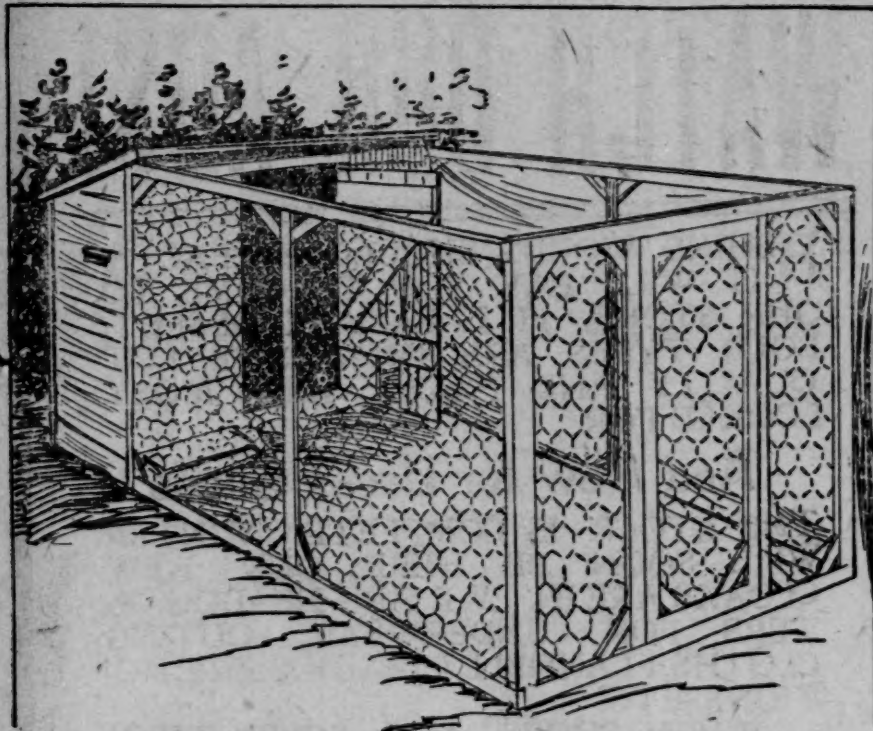

is in order with us if you intend building a fence, for we can help you if you tell us the size. We will figure out the lumber for you and give you a close estimate on what your fence, house, barn, and other buildings will cost you. Let us hear from you if you intend building.

Winchester Lumber & M'f'g Company.

INCORPORATED.

CHEAP COLONY HOUSE FOR CHICKS

It Simplifies the Work of Raising Poultry.

Colony houses can be made very cheaply of an organ box and a few feet of wire netting. The illustration shown herewith, redrawn from an illustration in Journal of Agriculture, shows a colony house he has been using for a number of years. The same was made from an organ box and two rods of netting at a total cost of $1.45. If dry goods boxes were used in the construction the cost could probably be lowered below one dollar. The chicks are kept in this house till they are old enough to roost on poles in the large central houses.

Hamamelis Virginica—Witch Hazel

This plant is sometimes a bush ten or more feet high and sometimes a tree 25 feet high, according to the locality in which it is found. It grows in the states east of the Mississippi river. It is oftenest found on the banks of streams or in the moist woods. The tree is remarkable for its lateness of coming into flower, which is in September and October. The flowering takes place while the leaves are falling and continues on until winter. The fruit takes the whole of the next growing season to mature. The bark and the leaves were used as medicine by the Indians and are so used by the whites.

Colostrum Milk.—The milk given by a cow for the first three or four days after calving is quite different in color, taste, and appearance from milk in its normal condition. Such milk is called colostrum milk, and has different chemical composition from ordinary milk. Colostrum milk is yellow in color and has a sweetish taste and a characteristic oily feeling. When boiled it coagulates, on account of the large amount of albumen present.

When hot water is poured into colostrum milk it curdles. —Prof. Harry Snyder.

Clean Milk.—It is generally supposed that milking in the yard is conducive to pure milk, but even that depends.

The Hen Yard.—Increase the size of the hen yard, so that the grass will not be all eaten off.

BOWLING ALLEY TO BE OPENED.

N. R. Ratliff Will Run First Class Establishment on Broadway.

Mr. N. R. Ratliff has leased the Bean building on Lexington avenue and will open up a bowling alley. Mr. Ratliff has for the past three weeks, been engaged in remodeling the building and placing the alleys which have arrived. Some of material has been delayed but he is now sure that he will open next week. When opened this will be one of the finest alleys in the State. Mr. Ratliff says that at least one evening each week will be set apart for ladies.

TELEGRAPHIC MATCH.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 14.—After weeks of preliminary arrangements the telegraphic match between the Fayette Gun Club and that of Chicago will take place Wednesday afternoon.

Each team will call its squad to the firing line on their respective ranges promptly at 2 o'clock p. m. That it will be an exhibition of skill in the matter of handling the light fowling piece worth seeing, no one doubts who is at all conversant with the two teams that will face each other, though hundreds of miles apart, for honors that are not limited by the confines of the two States whose teams are thus represented.

Ten Men Shoot.

The conditions of the race are that it shall be with ten men each, at 100 targets per man, at unknown angles, and shot under the rules of the Interstate Association. Each squad of five men will shoot at twenty-five targets before retiring. From the tabulation of the score by the secretary the result will be wired to the other team.

So that in many respects it will have all the features of a contest where the contestants are together and watching the individual work of the opposing team.

WRIGHT HAS SOLD OUT.

PARIS, Oct. 14.—According to the Paris newspapers Wilbur Wright, the aviator, has told Lazare Weiller, head of the syndicate, that has purchased the French rights to the Wright brothers' machine, that as soon as he has completed his contract with the syndicate by instructing three pilots in the workings of the aeroplane, he will attempt some flights for height. There is no reason, he is reported to have said, why he should not go up to a height of 3,000 feet. He also spoke of trying some flights without the motor and without the derrick which is now required to start the aeroplane.

DANGEROUSLY ILL.

A telegram was received late yesterday afternoon by Mr. Jno. Schooler, that his son, Mat, at Normal, Ill., was dangerously ill of appendicitis. Late last night he sent a telegram inquiring about his condition but no responses has yet been received.

Mat. Schooler left here about three years ago for Normal and has since been engaged in business in that city.

AN URGENT CALL.

A doctor spending a rare and somewhat dull night at his own fire-side received the following message from three fellow practitioners: "Please step over to the club and join us at a rubber of whist." "Jane, dear," he said to his wife, "I am called away again. It appears to be a difficult case—there are three other doctors on the spot already." —London News.

ERROR IN THE FIGURES.

Teacher—"What is wrong about this sentence: 'I am 20 my last birthday?'" Little Johnny—"It should be '40' instead of '20.'" —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

NEW BAKERY FIRM!

We have opened up our Bakery in the Simpson Building, 105 N. Main St.

and are now ready to serve the public EVERY SATURDAY we will have on display a nice assortment of Layer and Plain Cakes, Yeast and Salt Rising Breads, Parker House Rolls, and Cookies always on hand. Goods delivered to any part of the city. Give us a call.

WINCHESTER BAKERY,
NORTH BROS. Props.

WEDDINGS!

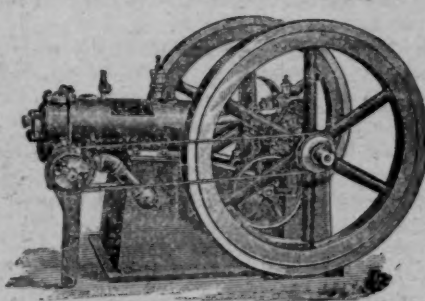

The prospective bride looks for a token. If you were in her place, you would. At any rate, it is customary to hand her a little remembrance.

You might as well satisfy this customary habit. It won't cost you much. Pick out some little trinket in sterling silver. Any of them make highly appreciative little remembrances.

We don't know just why, but many of our patrons are buying silver engagement remembrances.

Baldwin Bros.,
JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS.

HAGAN
Gas and Gasoline Engines!

SIMPLE! RELIABLE! ECONOMICAL!

Sold Under a Positive Guarantee.
WRITE FOR CATALOGUE AND PRICES.

HAGAN GAS ENGINE & MFG. CO.,
INCORPORATED,
WINCHESTER, KY.

RACKET STORE!

Come to Rawlins' Racket Store and buy your winter underwear; also your hats, caps, shirts and gloves.

I keep a complete line of hardware, tinware and Queensware. Come in and see goods.

T. C. RAWLINS.

Ramsey Transfer Co.
Hauling of All Kinds
Furniture Moving a Specialty
HOME PHONE

=Shoes=
For Comfort and Style.

It is necessary to have your shoes properly fitted. Different feet require different shape shoes and to keep your feet in good condition it is necessary to wear shoes that fit. Now we have made a study of your wants and have every thing to be found in High-Class Shoes.

For style we have the Button Patent, for wear, the plain Calf, and for comfort the plain Vici Kid Shoes.

For men who are exposed to the weather and want to keep their feet dry and warm, we have the Moose High Top Shoes, they are as near water proof as shoes can be made.

We Sell Manhattan Shirts, Knox and Stetson Hats.

McCord, Smith & Phillips.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

JOUETT - JOUETT—
Attorneys At Law.
Winchester, Ky.

J. M. STEWART—
Attorney At Law.
60 S. Main St., Winchester, Ky.

BECKNER & BECKNER—
Attorneys At Law.
Winchester, Ky.

PENDLETON, EUSH & BUSH—
Attorneys At Law.
60 S. Main St., Winchester, Ky.

DR. W. C. WORTHINGTON—
Office hours, 10 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 3 p. m. and 7 to 8 p. m.
New 'phone 432, Residence 633.
51 N. Main St., Winchester, Ky.

For Drugs, Graphophones, Kodaks, Paints, Stationary, and Toilet Articles, go to Winchester Drug Co. THE STORE OF QUALITY. Both Phones 46.

WINCHESTER TAILORING CO.
M. & C. H. McKINNEY, Props.
Clothes Cleaned, Pressed and Repaired.
DRY CLEANING AND DYING A SPECIALTY.
Over Allan & Murphy's Store opp. Court House.

CLASSIFIED COLUMN.

ADVERTISING RATES.
One-half cent per word, per insertion, 5 cents, per calendar month. Nothing counted less than 20 words. No item charged on books for less than 25 cents.

WANTED.—Second-hand old-fashioned brass kettle. Cheap. Address X, News office. 10-12-6t.

WANTED.—To rent eight room house, gas and water. Must be centrally located. Address B, this office. 12-3t.

WANTED.—People who have rooms to rent, board for sale, or who want help, to advertise in this column. 10-12-tf.

WANTED.—Man to do some brick work, repairing and resetting. Apply immediately at News office. 10-12-tf.

HIGH GRADE PHOTOGRAPHY!

Remember that high-grade photographs and portraits make appropriate Xmas presents. Place your orders with EARP, The Artist, now, and avoid the rush during the holidays.

Don't Suffer with Indigestion and pay unnecessary doctor's bill by allowing yourself and family to eat impure foods when the best can be had at the same price. Our line of dried fruits is now in and ready for your inspection:

Fancy Prunes, 12 1-2c, 15c, and 20c per lb; Fancy Muir Peaches, 15c and 20c per lb; Extra Fancy Apricots, 20c per lb.

We represent one of the most reliable oyster firms in Baltimore and receive a fresh shipment in four times a week. All orders given prompt attention.

STOKELY & ROUNSAVALL

Sole agents for Ferndell Pure Foods; Chase & Sanborn Coffees and Teas; Price's Lard and Sausage; Red Cross Flour; Huyler's Candies; Bell's Flowers.

FOX.

A freight train was wrecked just below here, at the Stevenson crossing, Monday morning at 2 o'clock. Some eight or ten cars were demolished. A large quantity of flour from St. Louis and marked for Cuba was sold by the Company at $1 per 300-lb. sack, and was purchased in quantities of from one sack to two thousand pounds. The wreck was cleared and trains were running by Monday night.

Mrs. Narcissus Beall, of Lexington, and Mrs. Mary Webber, of Winchester, are visiting their nieces, Misses Stevenson, here.

The Teachers' Association met on Friday, the 8th, at the Franklin schoolhouse. Addresses were delivered by Profs. Taylor, Bosley, Tanner and others. A nice dinner was a feature of the occasion. The meeting was a splendid success.

John Miller and family are talking of going to Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ode Piersall, of Winchester, visited the latter's brother, Mr. James Thomson, Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Hart Fryer and son, Charney, of Missouri, visited Mr. Kirby Wills, last week.

No Difference.

Little Willie—"People talk of the 'milk' in the cocoonat." Mr. Citman—"Well?" Little Willie—"Why do they say 'milk'?" It doesn't look like anything but water," Mr. Citman—"Well?"—Philadelphia Press

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

FOUND.—On Main street, ladies gold watch. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this ad. L. D. HASTINGS, C. & O. Freight office 10-12-14.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—Three rooms. Apply Mrs. Joicy Burgin, College street. 10-14-15.

RUFUS RASTUS JOHNSTON BROWN

"WHAT YOU G'ING TO DO WHEN THE SNOW COMES DOWN?"

BUY A HEATER FROM

BUSH,
ON THE CORNER.

WHY BUY WATER From Oyster Dealers?

Of course, when a dealer mixes fresh water with oysters and prevails on you to buy it at the rate of from 30c to 50c per quart. HE may be smart, but aren't YOU foolish? Your water company will sell you water at a much lower rate. Now, if you want oysters only—fresh, pure, natural flavor and solid meats—no water at all—our Sealshipt Oysters fill the bill. Telephone an order or drop into our store.

T. E. BARNES.

SUFFRAGETTES RAID COMMONS

Enormous Mob Stops London Traffic.

ATTEMPT FOOTBALL RUSH

Entire Police Force of City Mobilized in Neighborhood of Parliament Square Battles Three Hours With Determined Women, One of Whom by Strategy Enters Building and Disturbs Session—Unemployed Also Take Hand in Demonstration.

London, Oct. 14.—The climax of the suffragette campaign was reached when an enormous mob hemmed in parliament and stopped traffic in all streets leading to Westminster. For more than three hours the crowds scuffled good-naturedly with the police, interfered with theatergoers, broke windows and disorganized things generally in the center of London.

The heroine of the day was Mrs. Travers Symons, formerly secretary to James Keir Hardie, the Socialist and independent member of parliament, who reached the door of the house of commons by strategy. The house was solemnly debating a bill to prevent children from cigar smoking, when the woman dashed past the doorkeeper to a position in front of the speaker's chair and shouted shilly: "Leave off discussing children and talk about women."

Three officials seized Mrs. Symons and carried her out bodily. She was then led to the outer door and dismissed. As a result of the coup an order was issued that hereafter women shall not be permitted in the building on any pretext whatever, and in the future the historic grille will not screen feminine spectators.

The appeal issued by the suffragettes a few days ago for 50,000 persons to help "rush" parliament was the most successful stroke yet. Not less than twice the number responded to the call, and nine-tenths of these were young people who came to see the fun. There were also a few hundred of the unemployed and their sympathizers.

Parliament was in a state of siege. A close triple line of police was drawn around three sides of the square in front of the building. The yard within the gates swarmed with police, and 200 guarded the terrace in the rear against assault by water, which the women twice attempted. A small fleet of police boats also patrolled the Thames approaches.

All the mounted police in London and suburbs had been mobilized at this center, and loads of hay were unstaked in the streets for the horses. The whole police force, together with cavalry, infantry and marines, numbering more than 5,000, was kept busy in restraining the pushing, struggling masses, especially about Trafalgar square, where the Nelson monument looked down upon dense crowds in all directions, with busses, motor cars and cabs, mostly filled with sightseers, trying to thread their way through.

A delegation of 13 suffragettes, which approached the police cordon and was formally refused admission to parliament, attempted a football rush, but the police chivalrously repulsed the women with the least possible roughness. Two bodies of the unemployed, however, which approached the line, were driven off with little saving grace, one across Westminster bridge and the other to St. James park. The police were pelted with vegetables and some stones in a few minor skirmishes that occurred, but nobody was seriously hurt. Twenty-four suffragettes and 12 of the unemployed were placed under arrest. Many persons fainted in the crush; a few were trampled upon and taken to the hospitals.

Girl Suicides After Quarrel. Columbus, O., Oct. 14.—Clara Walters, 19, daughter of Thomas Walters, formerly of Findlay, committed suicide by taking strychnine in her room on South Fourth street. The girl was removed to a hospital as soon as it was found she had taken poison, but she lived only about an hour. She said in explanation of her act that she had quarreled with William Craglow, a saloonkeeper, who had been paying her attentions, and that he had slapped her. The body of the girl will be taken to Findlay for burial.

Stricken While Performing Operation. Washington C. H., O., Oct. 14.—Stricken with paralysis while in the act of performing a surgical operation, Dr. J. L. Worley, one of the prominent physicians of this section of the state, lies in a critical condition at the country home of Joseph Hidy, north of this city. He held his lance in his hand and was about to make an incision in an abscess in a patient's throat when he suffered the paralytic stroke.

Second Crop of Peaches. Findlay, O., Oct. 14.—Mrs. James Litsenberger picked her second crop of peaches from a white cling tree. They are extraordinary fine for the second picking. The first ones were picked Aug. 10.

DO YOU WANT THE BEST?

IF you do, call on us and see our line of the very latest patterns in Wall Paper.

We also carry a full line of Varnishes, Glass, and Picture Moulding.

If you wish an artistic piece of work, let us frame your picture for you.

The lowest estimates given if you desire your house painted.

WINCHESTER PAINT & WALL PAPER CO.,

105 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

Hot Soda

SIMPLY DELICIOUS SO THEY ALL SAY

—but we want YOU to come also—then you will say it, too. Nothing so invigorating and warming these frosty mornings as a steaming hot Tomato, Hot Chocolate or Hot Coffee at our fountain.

Martin - Cook Drug Company.

Auditorium

Best RINK in the Blue Grass

The skating season is now open and the rink is crowded nightly. During October we will be open

Afternoon - 2 to 5
Evening - 7 to 10

Any lady or gentleman who has not skated and who desires to learn will be taught free in the morning or between sessions.

Auditorium

Eagle Casting Co.

(INCORPORATED)
Manufacturers of
Gray Iron, Steel, Semi-Steel,
Brass & Bronze Castings.

Jobbers in Eye Beams, Channels, Angles,
Plates & Bars.

F. G. CORNELL, General Manager.

SEE
GILBERT & BOTTO —FOR—

Fresh & Cured Meats

Fish, Vegetables, Country Produce
BOTH PHONES OPERA HOUSE BLOCK

WATCH OUR ADS!

BEHIND WORDS SHOULD BE FACTS. IT WILL PAY YOU TO COME TO OUR STORE. IT IS EASY TO ASSERT, BOLD TYPES ARE IMPRESSIVE, BUT QUALITY AND PRICES ARE MOST LOOKED FOR.

And Now for Dress Goods

THE STOCK IS COMPLETE. WINTER WILL SOON BE HERE; OUR NEW CLOAKS ARE IN. WE ARE HEADQUARTERS FOR UNDERWEAR, OUTFIT CLOTHS, FLANNELETES, HOSIERY, NOTIONS, ETC.

WHEN SHOES ARE SOLID THEY WILL WEAR. WE HAVE THEM.

All-Wool Blankets

Sure-enough All-Wool—both the Warp and the Woof of every Blanket will sustain the statement.

We gladly invite all to make us a visit whether they wish to buy or not. Ask for prices.

SCRIVENER BROS. & CO.

The Corner Shoe Store

is filled with the newest and classiest shoe effects of the season. They will gladden your feet and finish your costume.

PRICES REASONABLE.

MASSIE, The Shoe Man.

WINCHESTER OPERA HOUSE!

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20

Burt-Nicolai & Nixon Offer

MISS

Beulah Poynter

In Her Own Dramatization of

LENA

RIVERS

By MARY J. HOLMES,

The writer with over 5,000,000 Readers

Daily Thought.

Peace in this life springs from acquiescence even in disagreeable things, not in exemption in bearing them.—Fenelon.

Prolific Eggs of Silk Worm.
One ounce of eggs will produce 39,000 silk worms.